

ACCOMMODATION

If you are looking for accommodation please check the following:

1. The Accommodation Office in Áras Uí Chathail can supply you with a list of available private rented accommodation. The Accommodation Office can also advise on the availability of accommodation in the Student Residences.
2. The Galway Advertiser (www.galwayadvertiser.ie). This is a free local newspaper. It produces a weekly accommodation list which can be purchased for €2 on Wednesday afternoons from the Galway Advertiser Office in Eyre Square. The information is also available online. The newspaper comes out on Thursday; it is free and can be picked up in newsagents in the city.
3. The website www.daft.ie lists available accommodation in Galway City.
4. Notice boards on campus – many students will be advertising for room mates on the notice boards on campus. Check the notice boards in the area under the Library – there are several. Also there is a notice board beside the Accommodation Office. Keep your eyes open when strolling through the campus, notices can be posted anywhere.
5. There are several letting agencies in Galway City which can assist with finding rental properties
